The Sermon on the Mount

Jesus' Sermon On The Mount (Mt 5-7) is all about the kingdom of heaven. The kingdom of heaven isn't a place, rather, it is about God reigning. The kingdom of heaven is wherever, and whenever God reigns, and whomever God reigns over.

John the Baptist warned the people to repent for the kingdom of heaven was near (3:2), a message repeated by Jesus himself (4:17),

1. What else do you find out about the kingdom of heaven from the early chapters of Matthew?

Matthew 5

Please read Mt 5:1-16.

2. Where have the crowds of v1-2 come from? Do you think that Jesus was teaching just the disciples or the whole crowd? (See also 7:28-9).

3. Read through each of the beatitudes (v3-12). Discuss the following with your group:
  - a. How does Jesus' call to attitude and behaviour differ to that of the world?

  - b. In what context will these blessings be experienced?

4. Look over the beatitudes and measure yourself on these mental attitudes-1 being LOW and 4 being HIGH

	LOW	1	2	3	4	HIGH
POOR IN SPIRIT: I have come to the place where I feel accepted by God when I feel most unacceptable to myself. I recognize my need for God and know that I do not have to earn His love with wealth, status or spiritual sophistication.
MOURN: I am more aware of my failures than I used to be. The further along the road I go, the more I realise how much further I have to go to become like Jesus. I appreciate the pain people experience in their lives, and can weep like Jesus did.

MEEK: I have come to the place where I don't have to be the strong one all the time. I can be tender and gentle with people. I've given the control of my life to God and I don't have to "win" all the time.
SPIRITUAL HUNGER: I have come to the place where I want to know God and His will for my life more than anything. I am more excited about God's will for the world than my own financial gain, success in my career, or acceptance by my peers. I long for God's perspective in my decision-making.
MERCIFUL: I have come to the place where I can enter into the feelings of someone who is hurting, lonely, or distressed and feel alongside them in their pain. God has given me a sensitivity for the suffering of others.
PURE IN HEART: I have come to the place where I can be completely open and honest with God and others--transparent because I have nothing to hide. I don't have to put on "airs," or pretend to be what I'm not.
PEACEMAKER: I have come to the place where I really. work at keeping the channels of communication open between me and those around me. I deal with anger and disagreements immediately and don't allow them to fester. I encourage those around me to work out their differences without hurting one another.
PERSECUTION: I have come to the place where I know what I am living for, and for this cause I am not afraid to suffer and, if need be, die. I am willing to "take the heat" and stand alone for what is right. I can take criticism without feeling self-pity or self-righteousness.

5. Below is a list of qualities based on the Beatitudes. In silence, think about the members of your group and jot down their initials next to the beatitude paraphrase where you see each person as strong. (For instance, you might put Bob's initials next to "gentleness".) Then, share with the group who you selected for each characteristic.

SELF-ACCEPTANCE: The ability to accept yourself and your imperfections, and to enable others to be more self-accepting.
EMPATHY: The ability to feel what others feel; to laugh and cry with others.
GENTLENESS: The ability to be tender because you are inwardly strong and to lead without overpowering others.
SPIRITUALITY: The ability to maintain spiritual priorities and to cause others to seek a deeper walk with Christ.
SENSITIVITY: The ability to pick up on the hurt and pain of others and be "present" without being pushy or nosy.
TRANSPARENCY: The ability to be yourself without any pretenses and allow the presence of Christ to radiate through you.
PEACEMAKING: The ability to harmonize differences between others without causing either person to "lose."

ENDURANCE: The ability to stand up for what you believe without getting defensive or compromising your principles.

14. Look at each section (v21-26; v27-30; v31-32; v33-37; v38-42; v43-48).
  - a. Identify the areas from each section where we would all be declared guilty according to the law.
  - b. Identify the areas from each section where we are expected to achieve obedience.

As we have been working our way through chapter 5 we have seen that the only way we can come to God is according to his mercy. There is no point at which we can trust our own spiritual self-sufficiency. As one Christian author has commented "Attempts to conform our character to God's requirements by the sufficiency of our actions are ... arrogant."

15. If this is so (and it is) what is the basis of even trying to live a life of obedience?
16. How can we be perfect as our heavenly Father is perfect (v48)?
